Brookline Selectman Tells Forum Workers Should Not Be Elected Town Meeting Members as Only Apparent Interest is to Obtain Salary Increases.

The first of a series of Forums on Town Government, inaugurated by the school department, was held Thursday evening, Jan. 13, in the Junior Library Hall.

Clifford R. Hall, superintendent of the school department, greeted more than a hundred interested citizens, when he introduced Joseph H. Gaudet, supervisor of Americanization in the school department, as chairman.

The speaker of the evening was Daniel Tyler, Jr., who is serving his fourth term as selectman of Brookline, which still has a town meeting form of government with a population of 60,000.

Mr. Tyler proved a dynamic speaker, in discussing what such a government used to be, what it is now, and what can be done to improve it. He said: "You are going to be governed from the time you first breathe until you die; how much interest have you in this government?" He stated that the modern trend is away from the present form toward some type of manager government as two-thirds of the communities over 5,000 have now some form of manager government.

"Our country is in a jam," said the speaker, "and we don't realize it. There are too many governing and not enough producing, not only in towns, but in the Federal Government whose debt is ten times what it was ten years ago. A lot of things are desirable—not too many desirable."

At one point Mr. Tyler made the broad statement: "No town employee should be a Town Meeting Member. Their only apparent interest as such is to obtain a raise in salary. This granted, they leave in a body."

In Arlington there are approximately 20 Town Meeting Members who are town employees. A question period followed with Mr. Gaudet acting as moderator. The next Forum on Thursday, January 20, will be combination of gardenias and addressed by James J. Golden.

Only 600 Dime Folders Have Been Returned

Although 10,000 folders have been mailed to local residents in the March of Dimes campaign, only some 600 have been returned, according to the Arlington Auxiliary Police Committee which is sponsoring the drive. The committee asks citizens for a more prompt response, as the campaign closes January 31.

The Aloha Pi Sorority is at the Capitol and Regent Theatres this week soliciting dimes for the campaign. This is the sorority's January Service activity for this year.

Critically Hurt by Auto

Harold T. Rhodes, 63, of 7 College avenue, who was seriously injured Monday night when struck by an automobile as he was crossing Mystic street, was still in a critical condition at Symmes Hospital today. He is suffering from a fractured skull, fractured right leg and other injuries. Arthur F. Drapeau of Burlington was the operator of the car, police said.

Patricia Darnum Bride Of Robert E. Leary

Two huge urns of bridal flowers, festoons of green, and candles decorated the altar of the Unitarian Church for the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Darnum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Darnum of 36 Robbins road, and Robert Edward Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leary of Massachusetts avenue, on Saturday evening, January 15. The Rev. John Nicol Mark performed the ceremony and Mr. Darnum gave his daughter in marriage.

Gowned in white taffeta with finger-tip veil, her bouquet a combination of gardenias and fleur-de-lis, the bride was attended by James J. Golden.

4 More Take Out Papers For Town Jobs; 3 For Housing Body

Four more candidates have taken out papers this week for various town jobs to be filled at the annual election in March. This now makes a total of 23 candidates in the field.

Among the candidates are three who aspire to the Arlington Housing Authority, now considered by many as one of the most important units of local government because of the vital need of additional housing here in Arlington.

Those who have taken out papers for the authority are Edward J. Doherty, A. Lee Morris and Joseph S. Vahey. The incumbents, W. Dale Barker, Myron D. Chase, Harold E. Magnuson and Hans Tobiasson, have already taken out their papers for re-election. Incidentally, it was pointed out today by James J. Golden, Town Clerk, that in the coming election no specific term has been provided for the members of the Housing Authority. The candidate receiving the highest vote will serve five years, the second four years, the third two years and the one receiving the least votes one year.

Mr. Vahey told The Advocate today that he feels that the members elected to this office should have, if possible, a complete knowledge and understanding of the needs, the desires and the problems that confront the veterans in relation to his or her housing needs. He said that, if elected, he could provide intelligent action towards the construction of suitable housing for many veterans.

Paul Fraser, a printer, of 6 Marathon street, is the latest candidate to take out papers for the Planning Board.

Big Crowd Attends Polio Benefit

The drive is launched and the goal is assured, for the crowd filling Robbins Memorial Town Hall Wednesday, January 19, for the Polio benefit augurs well for its success.

The High School band, under Mr. Russell's leadership, entertained the guests and when "America the Beautiful" was sung by Carl Wallquist, soloist at the First Baptist Church, who also led in the singing of the National Anthem.

Mrs. Raymond McKeever, president of the Crosby P.T.A., sponsors of the evening, was gracious in her speech of welcome, which was followed by violin solos played by Francis Fahry, He and Miss Carol-Lee Sandler, who played the accompaniments, acknowledged prolonged applause.

Mrs. McKeever introduced the special guests which included Mrs. Phoebe Beck, advisor on state activities; Mrs. John Stafford, P.T.A. Council president; Mrs. Cunningham and William J. Sinclair, general chairman of the drive, who was master of ceremonies.

Mr. Sinclair praised the Auxiliary Police organization for its sponsorship of the March of Dimes; Miss Bernice H. Holmes and Mrs. Robert W. Murphy, for work accomplished, as well as member of his committee. He stated that the four million dollar reserve fund in the National Foundation had been completely wiped out in the fearful epidemic in the West; that 27,608 cases, the largest in polio history, is a major catastrophe, and pleaded that we fall in line generously in the March of Dimes.

Marjorie Mills, columnist, was convincing in her plea on behalf of the fund. Bill Cunningham,

Vahey Sworn in as Asst. Atty. General

Attorney Joseph S. Vahey was sworn in as an Assistant Attorney General on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Vahey is a well known resident of Arlington, both in political circles and veterans organizations. He has been a practicing lawyer for 16 years, four of which were spent in the armed forces during World War II. In addition to his assign-columnist and radio commentator, outlined the machinations of the foundation as it effects us locally, and told of many cures which are now possible. The ushers, beautifully gowned, included Mrs. Albert Porteus, first vice-president of the P.T.A. Council; Mrs. Walter Coolidge, second vice-president; Mrs. Elrich Schrieter, president of the Brackett P.T.A.; Mrs. Milton Bretscher, president of Hardy P.T.A.; Mrs. Donald Pettie, Parmenter P.T.A.; Mrs. Elmer Scribner, Mrs. Chester Pletteplace, Mrs. Maitland, Mrs. James Boyd, president of Junior High West P.T.A.; Howard Whitehouse and William Wood.

Tickets were handled by Copeland McAllister and Aran Sarkisian.

John J. Shea of Lombard terrace was in charge of publicity for this successful affair.

Scant Interest In Town Meeting Form

Alarm Is Expressed at Lethargy of Citizens Toward Coming Election to Fill 100 Membership Vacancies. Only 75 Have Signified Intention of Running.

Lexington Man Named Local Welfare Head

George V. Morse of Lexington was appointed local welfare agent by the Board of Selectmen at its meeting Monday night. He succeeds Clifford W. Cook who resigned January 1 to accept a similar post in Brookline. Mr. Morse, whose appointment becomes effective January 31, is now a field supervisor with the State Department of Public Welfare and for several years he was with the Lexington public welfare department. He is a native of Berlin, Mass., and a graduate of Amherst, Class of 1914.

At present a scant 75 citizens have signified their intention of running to fill the 100 vacancies for Town Meeting Member. The vacancies occur largely from terms expiring in March, 1949; several are due to death and resignations.

This condition was pointed out to the Advocate this week by Donald P. Bresnan, Chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Citizens' Committee. The C. C.'s disappointment is two-fold. First, it shows a breaking down in our town form of government. Secondly, the C. C. can hardly go through with its plans of endorsement if there are only two candidates for four vacancies in a certain precinct.

Easy to Qualify

"Perhaps public-minded citizens do not realize the easy procedure to get a name on the ballot," Mr. Bresnan declared. Nomination papers are obtained at the Town Clerk's office; only 10 signatures of registered voters in the precinct are required. The papers then must be filed with the Town Clerk before January 24, 1949, at 5 p. m. (Note: other candidates need not file until January 31.)

The worst sort of practices may occur when vacancies still remain after the election in March, it was explained. The law provides that the elected members may then make their own selections. "Naturally, 'railroading' and 'packing' might become rampant," Mr. Bresnan said.

Another possibility is that a voter may rightfully write his own name in on the ballot. If there are only three running for four places, by this one vote the man may be elected.

Hardly a democratic way!

Hurt in Fall

James E. Wilt of 28 Foster street, a plumber employed by the school department, was injured when he fell from a staging in the high school last week Thursday. He was taken to Symmes Hospital for observation but was removed to his home on Tuesday.

OUR LIBRARY

To the newcomer one of the most impressive sights in Arlington is the Robbins Library. In our humble opinion the public library sets the tone of a town or city. To one who aims to be more or less erudite it is the most important cultural aspect of the place in which we live. Without a public library a town would be a barren place indeed.

We hope that our townspeople are proud of this library. Architecturally it is imposing both without and within. But that is not so important as the thousands of books sheltered within its walls. For it is from books that we gain the knowledge and the pleasure that makes an otherwise mundane existence tolerable.

And speaking of books, we are reminded that these long winter nights offer us the opportunity to catch up with our reading, perhaps to read again some of the classics, perhaps even to delve into the beauty of, say, the Greek classics, Shakespeare, Scott, Dickens or Arnold Toynbee's recent "A Study of History", a monumental achievement and one that should be read by every true lover of literature.

As most of our readers probably know, The Advocate has for years been running weekly a list of the new books as they are received by our library, and it is always an excellent list. With this fine library in our midst one does not need to bemoan the lack of his own private library, which is not to say that one should not have always at hand in his home as many of the better books as he can afford to buy in this ever rising book market.

And we must not forget to remind you that Robbins has one of the largest and most beautiful reading rooms in the country. It is practically a counterpart, by the way, of the famous reading room in the University Club in New York which was designed by the noted firm of McKim, Mead & White.

ALL COMMUNISTS LIARS

This was the blunt statement made by Dr. Eduard Benes, late President of Czechoslovakia, in one of the last messages prior to his death last September. It was made to his former secretary, Dr. Edouard Taborsky, who arrived in this country a few days ago, and resulted from Benes' dealings with Stalin and other Communists.

"For a long time I believed that Gottwald (President Klement Gottwald) at least did not lie to me," the message read, "but now I see that they all lie, without exception. It is a common matter with all Communists, especially the Russian ones. My greatest mistake was to refuse to believe that even Stalin lied to me cynically, both in 1935 and later, and that his assurances to me and to Masaryk were an international deceit."

Here is a warning that seems to come almost from the grave of one who was so sadly disillusioned by those he trusted and who turned upon him with the villainy of a modern Richard III. And the message comes at an opportune time—at a time when twelve of this country's most notorious and dangerous Communists are on trial in Federal Court in New York.

A DEFINITION OF CAPITALISM

In a recent talk before the Harvard Business School, Earl Bunting, managing director of the National Association of Manufacturers, gave what is to our mind a fair and cogent definition of the much abused term capitalism—inspired for the most part by native Communists and their fellow travelers—when he said:

"Properly defined, capitalism does not mean the mere pointlessness or greedy accumulation of money. There is a tremendous difference between capital formation and hoarding. Capital is the wealth employed to produce more wealth. . . it is used to increase production."

But of course the Communies and their dupes will continue their silly prattle ad nauseam.

THE NEW ERA IN JOURNALISM

In looking back on 60 years of newspapering, Dr. Charles P. Cooper, professor emeritus of the Columbia University School of Journalism, recalled the other day that while the newspaper of 40 years ago knew how to get a story, few of them could write it in presentable English. But today, Dr. Cooper pointed out, even local stories have an international background and the man beginning as a reporter needs a solid foundation of academic training in history and economics or he won't understand what he is writing about.

Now 74, Dr. Cooper, known to former students in every part of the country, graduated from Wesleyan College in 1888 and for 24 years he was one of the shining lights of the New York Sun when it was in its heyday.

OLD AGE

My life is swiftly fleeting,
I'm growing very old
I haven't much time left on earth
At least so I've been told.

My bones they creak,
My head it's sore
My corns they ache
As never before.

I look back on life
O'er the long weary years
Memories to my eyes
Bring tears.

I've lived a good life,
And I earnestly pray
That I'll go to heaven
On Judgment Day.

It's hard to be cheerful,
Or happy and keen
When one grows so old.
Yes, I'm nearly nineteen.

Seen Through THE SPYGLASS

The Spy has just discovered that, while there will be the same number of musical shows in Arlington this year as usual, this season will mark the first time in almost 20 years that there will be no Gilbert & Sullivan performance in town. . . . Both the High School and the Friends of the Drama, who for years have been foremost in local G. & S. presentations, are taking a departure this season—the High School to Straus, when in April they will do "The Waltz Dream," under the direction of Hassler Einzig; the Friends, with Ed Center directing, bringing forth a big production of Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts" to run the entire week of Feb. 11.

The Spy dropped into a rehearsal at the Park Avenue Church the other night, to watch PACT members busy getting ready for their play "Big Hearted Herbert" to be presented in the Parish Hall on February 12.

The Spy reports that George Harris, candidate for Selectman, has already filed several hundred signatures with the Town Clerk and has been certified on the ballot in the March election. In this he shows his usual do-it-now attitude.

That Man About Town

By MAT

We have noted the activity stirred up by this paper and the Citizens' Committee on Town Meeting. We now will attempt to inform the voters as to the qualifications for becoming a Town Meeting Member. Perhaps people who might run for this office do not know what is necessary. So here goes. It is only necessary to do two things (1) be a registered voter in Town and (2) file papers bearing ten (or more) genuine voters' signatures. Such nomination papers may be obtained at the Town Clerk's office—no charge.

We will go a bit further and state that many of our readers, who are voters, would undoubtedly be of great value as Town Meeting Members. It is a civic duty which will only cause them to appear at the Town Hall from three to four nights (in March and perhaps one or two nights in the Fall or Winter.) It is not necessary that one be an orator to hold this office. It has been, however, one of our gripes, that so few of the Town Meeting Members get up and voice their opinions. In all our experience we find that the talking on warrant articles is confined to not more than a dozen people per meeting and it is always the same dozen. Many good ideas, willingly expressed outside the hall, never see the light of day because the thinker is afraid that he might offend someone. This idea should be cast aside. If one has an opinion on Town affairs, it should be expressed. That is democracy and good government comes from the opinions of more than the few.

After one is elected, he will receive a notice of a pre-Town Meeting gathering in his own precinct, where the warrant articles will be fully explained to him by a member of the Finance Committee.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor:
At the last meeting of the Arlington Citizens' Committee on January 12th, it was unanimously voted that the Committee extend its thanks to you for your wholehearted support of the Committee.

You are well aware of the effort we are making to improve the Town Meeting. One of our biggest obstacles is the lack of interest on the part of many of the present Town Meeting Members, who do not bother to attend the Meeting.

At the last Town Meeting we requested a roll call to determine how many members were actually present. The Advocate's prompt willingness to assist the Committee by giving up valuable newspaper space to print the unofficial roll call was a public spirited gesture that will go far in improving the interest in the Town Meeting by the voters. For the first time citizens of Arlington were able to see in black and white the attendance record of their elected precinct representatives. As you know, only 58% bothered to attend.

Your recent news columns and feature editorials clearly state the problems confronting the Town in the Town Meeting. We are sincerely grateful for them and wish to congratulate you on them.

Advices Switch to Lower Grade Gas

"Savings upwards of $200,000 annually are possible by the switching public simply by switching from premium gasoline to lower costing regular gas," says Robert S. Kretschmar, secretary of the Boston Automobile Club.

"Use of regular grade gas instead of premium fuel," he points out, "would save millions of dollars for motorists without any sacrifice in the performance of their cars."

There is only one major difference between the two grades of fuel, Mr. Kretschmar says, citing reports of the American Automobile Association and the Federal Specifications Board. Premium gas has a somewhat higher octane rating and therefore has less tendency to "knock"; however, it does not start easier, it doesn't give better mileage and it doesn't have more power.

"As a matter of fact," the Auto Club official continues, "regular grade gas is such an excellent fuel generally that it is suitable for the majority of cars now in use. Regular gas performs just as well as premium for ease of starting, warm-up, mileage and power."

An elaborate new Roster Book, prepared by George D. Webster and Richard Churchill, was presented to the Class by Walter Aisen, General Membership Chairman. He also announced a ten weeks intra-class attendance contest between the Red, White and Blue Divisions headed by Al Brown, Wally Gorton and Francis Tufts. The contest begins next Sunday and will run until March 27.

Harold E. Magnuson, Chairman of the Guest Speakers Committee, announced that Perry Gilbert Eddy, Miller, Ph.D., Professor of American Literature at Harvard University, prominent scholar, author and lecturer, will address the Class next Sunday.

Missionary Work Described

"What Hath God Wrought" was the topic used by the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church at the January meeting. Mrs. Nathan R. Wood, a member of the church and second vice president of the Northern Baptist Convention, was the speaker. She described the missionary work being carried on by some of the Baptist missionaries in Africa, Asia, Bengal, Arissa, Burma, China, Japan and the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. Wyman presided at the business meeting and introduced those taking part in the program. Brief life sketches of three of the missionaries, Miss Flora Ernst of Philippine Islands, Ellen Peterson of East China and Dorothy Lincoln of Central America, were given by Mrs. Earl Bolton, Mrs. Doris Wood and Mrs. Wyman.

Mrs. Gordon Dilmore was devotional leader and the special music was by Miss Miriam McNay, who sang "How Lovely is the Hand of God," "Beside Still Waters" and "Lullaby" from the opera Jocelyn. Tea was served by the Highland Hillside group.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Truth" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 23. Golden Text: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth" (Psalms 86:15).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God" (Luke 13:10-13). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"If sickness is true or the idea of Truth, you cannot destroy sickness, and it would be absurd to try. Then classify sickness and error as our Master did, when he spoke of the sick, 'whom Satan hath bound,' and find a sovereign antidote for error in the life-giving power of Truth acting on human belief, a power which opens the prison doors to such as are bound, and sets the captive free physically and morally" (p. 495).

ANOTHER LANDMARK GOES

Shown in the primary stages of demolition is the old Clark Stables Building on Mystic street which has served as an antique store and warehouse for the past few years. At the time of the picture, the roof is just coming off and the windows have all been removed. When you view this picture only a memory will be left of one of the old social gathering places of yesterday's Arlington.

The building was located at the corner of Winslow and Mystic Streets. The site, it is believed, will be occupied by a new A & P Supermarket.

Philharmonic to be Heard
In P. T. A. Series

For the second consecutive year, the Arlington Council of the Parent-Teacher Associations will have the cooperation of the Arlington Philharmonic Orchestra and Chorus, and will present two programs at Robbins Memorial Town Hall, on Saturday evening, Feb. 5, at 7:30 and on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 6, at 3 o'clock, with Leo Litwin as musical commentator and conductor.

Mr. Litwin will describe the different instruments of the orchestra to the school children, with illustrations by the various members of the orchestra, and will conduct the complete program, which includes orchestral and choral selections, together with a harp concerto. Fourteen-year-old Renee Canzaneli, a sophomore at Arlington High School, will give one of the very few performances known hereabouts as the DuBois Fantasy for Harp and orchestra. Renee will also demonstrate the component parts of the harp, so that the youthful listeners will know how the various effects are obtained.

Also included in this program, will be the Triumphal March from the opera "Aida" (of which the Philharmonic plans to present a condensation later in the season), and the Peer Gynt Suite of Edvard Grieg. The composer Brahms will be represented by three of his Liebeslieder Waltzes for chorus and two pianos, while the American folksong "Skip to My Lou" will be sung by the entire chorus, assisted by a group of dancers from the Arlington Girl Scouts. "Finlandia" by Sibelius will be performed by the full orchestra and chorus to conclude the program.

The music department of the Arlington schools has cooperated throughout in assisting the Parent-Teacher Associations Council to bring to the children of Arlington a greater comprehension of the structure of orchestral and choral concerts. These concerts were originated experimentally last year, and the success of the early efforts, combined with this season's presentation, makes these concerts unique, as this is the only series of its kind anywhere, sponsored jointly by a community orchestra and a PTA Council.

As each character entered the chancel he lighted his small candle from the Christ candle. Following the benediction given by the Rev. Halsey I. Andrews, the acolytes, Clark-Ginder, Kenneth King, Stanton Hamlet and John Gunnerson, passed down the aisles. At each pew they paused to light the candles which had been given each member of the congregation, symbolizing the spread of light.

The choir, under the direction of Louis T. Phelps, rendered a musical background for the pageant.

The ushers for the service were Robert Jefferson, Richard Yeames and Robert Tagell. Costuming was under the supervision of Mrs. Everett Ellis. Mrs. Robert Jefferson, Mrs. Ralph G. Penton, and Miss Barbara Whitman.

The pageant was under the direction of Ralph G. Penton, assisted by Robert Carlson.

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor,
Arlington Advocate:
Will you be kind enough to extend to me the courtesy of your paper to express my sincere thanks for the scores of letters and telephone calls I have received supporting my candidacy for Selectman.

It is extremely gratifying to me to find I have so many unknown friends throughout all sections of our town, and I want those friends to know that I appreciate their interest.

Due to pressure of business at this time I cannot personally answer all the letters, but I would like very much to have my friends know that I shall answer all their letters as soon as I possibly can.

GEORGE A. HARRIS.
